Research paper topics: 5-7 paragraphs

- Teenagers should/should not be able to wear t-shirts with any written message on it that they want.
- Corporal punishment should/should not be used in schools.
- Students should/should not be able to write anything they want in school publications.
- Students should/should not be protected from having their lockers/bags searched.
- Students should/should not be able to express their religious beliefs through prayer, dress, etc. in school.
- Teenagers could/should not be tried as adults.
- Student athletes should be subjected to drug testing.
- Religious or political clubs should/should not be allowed in school.
- The Constitution should/should not have to protect children from abusive parents.
- Children should/should not be granted emancipation from their parents under extreme circumstances (This could include cases of abuse, medical decisions, etc.)
- Teenagers should/should not be able to take a same sex partner to a school dance.
- Schools should/should not protect students from all bullies, including cyberbullies who bully during after school hours.
- Schools should/should not be allowed to monitor students’ social media accounts.
- Schools should/should not be able to withhold privileges and attendance to events based on behavior outside of school.
- When parents divorce, children should/should not have the right to choose which parent to live with.
- School faculty and staff should/should not be allowed to take away cell phones/laptops.
- Teenagers should/should not be allowed to accept/refuse their own medical treatment.
- Photographers/videographers should/should not need permission to photograph or video in a school setting.
- Students should/should not be allowed to OR object to read whatever material they want in school.
- Towns and cities should/should not be able to impose curfews on children under 18.